

NCDC Organized Webinar Talk on Preventive Health in Covid-19 pandemic on 29.05.2020

Professor Rakesh Yadav, Department of Cardiology at AIIMS, New Delhi gave his valuable time to speak to cooperative personnels, employees of NCDC etc. on the preventive health measures during the Covid-19 pandemic. Ms. Madhubala Saboo, Cooperative leader from Nagpur was the moderator with Shri Surender Kumar Suman, Assistant Director, NCDC as anchor.

The talk by Professor Yadav was reassuring and he cleared the doubts in the mind of the audience. He spoke of the measures to be adopted like observing social distancing, wearing a mask, washing hands etc. but most of all he recommended that we remain positive in approach and take care of our mental health.
